REISSUE APPLICATION DECLARATION
UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.175

I, Lars J. Walberg, a citizen of the United States residing at 1388 Mesa Drive, Eagle, Colorado 81631, hereby declare that:

1. I believe I and Richard J. Morris are original, first and joint inventors of the subject matter described and claimed in U.S. Patent No. 6,357,193, granted March 19, 2002, and for which a reissue patent is sought on the invention entitled ROOF BATTEN, the specification of which was filed on March 19, 2004.
2. I have reviewed and understand the contents of the above-identified specification, including the claims, as amended.
3. I acknowledge the duty to disclose information material to the examination of this application in accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.56.
4. I believe:
  - a. U.S. Patent No. 6,357,193 to be wholly or partially inoperative by reason of a defective specification. In one instance of a defective specification, claim 2 recites "the second ply includes a multiplicity of cross plies extending between the first plies,"

- i. Claim 1, from which claim 2 directly depends, recites "a generally planar first ply and a second ply,"
  - ii. Hence, claim 2 may be construed to be indefinite because it is impossible for a multiplicity of cross plies to extend between a single first ply, as recited in claim 1.
- b. U.S. Patent No. 6,357,193 to be wholly or partly inoperative by reason of the patentee claiming more or less than the patentee had a right to claim in the patent.
- i. In one instance of claiming more or less than the patentee had a right to claim in the patent, the material of which the first and the second ply comprise is not recited in a claim depending from claim 1.
  - ii. In another instance of claiming more or less than the patentee had a right to claim in the patent, the orientation of the cross portions with respect to the first ply is not recited.
  - iii. In another instance of claiming more or less than the patentee had a right to claim in the patent, a method of making the batten described in the patent is not recited.
  - iv. In another instance of claiming more or less than the patentee had a right to claim in the patent, claims reading on a batten per se, rather than a batten as a component of a tile roof system is not recited, in which the batten comprises a pair of generally planar first plies and a second ply extending between the first plies, the first plies and second ply defining a multiplicity of discrete passages allowing fluids to flow therethrough.

5. All errors corrected in the present reissue application up to the filing of this declaration arose without any deceptive intent on my part.
6. All statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. § 1001, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application and any patent issuing therefrom.
